Pit and Balcony Community Theatre continues to celebrate its 81st Season of Excellence. We want to thank our patrons for your continued support over the years. YOU are our most important player. Without you, we have no reason to be here. Many of you have already contributed to our fundraising campaign this season and we thank you again for your generosity. If you haven't had an opportunity to contribute to the campaign, we continue to accept donations. Donations can be sent by mail to 805 N. Hamilton St, Saginaw, MI, 48602. If you wish, you may donate by phone with a credit card or you may use PayPal on our website pitandbalconytheatre.com. We are currently expanding our programming this season to include a children/youth project for (ages 9-17), have added a Family Community Arts Enrichment as well as the Dimensions Program which celebrates the diversity of our community! Your donations help us provide quality entertainment in Saginaw County!

CLASS ACT

Youth
Theatre
Program

WHY IS PIT AND BALCONY'S CLASS ACT YOUTH THEATRE PROGRAM IMPORTANT?

- In this age of "no child left behind" and teaching for testing, arts programs have been reduced or dropped altogether..
- Students who study the arts perform better in other subjects.
- Students who study the arts learn discipline, collaboration and empathy.
- Students who study the arts develop self-esteem and self-confidence.
- Students who make time for the arts are more involved in community service.

THE MAKING OF NUNCRACKERS: THE MUSICAL

Jim Gaertner: Director

Jim directed last season's hilarious, red-neck Great American Trailer Park Musical. In the mid-80s he directed Pit's production of Annie, with a then-16-year old Brian D'Arcy James in the role of 'Rooster.' Brian has gone on to success on Broadway, Tony Award nominations and a leading role in the TV show Smash. Directing stints at Frankenmuth's former Fisher Hall also brought Jim in contact with other performers and musicians who now regularly perform on Broadway. And he was very proud to see his former Nouvel theater stand-out, Tony Serra, take Pit's stage last spring as Sweeney Todd.

With more than 55 years in community, professional and educational theater production, Jim has done everything from lighting and performing to producing and directing. He retired from Nouvel Catholic Central High School in 2010 after twelve years of directing high-quality, full-scale Broadway musicals each spring. He's enjoyed working with the Nuncrackers cast and crew and hopes you get 'in the Spirit' of these crazy but loveable nuns from Hoboken!

Sara Taylor, Musical Director

Sara returns to Pit and Balcony as Musical Director after last having worked in the same capacity for Godspell, Sweeney Todd and The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. She studied piano with Dr. Sara Hansen at Delta College and Dr. Joseph Gurt at Eastern Michigan University. She has served as an accompanist for numerous musical entities in the Great Lakes Bay Region, including SVSU Choirs, Saginaw Valley Lutheran Chorale, Germania, SBSO, Midland Center for the Arts, Saginaw Choral Society, Diva Night and Three Sopranos. Sara is also involved with Major Chords for Minors in Saginaw County!

Linda Rebney—Most Reverend Mother Regina

Linda, a retired theatre and English teacher with Saginaw Public Schools, previously graced our stage as a nun in Doubt, playing Sister Aloysius. She has appeared in several productions at Pit and Balcony Theatre, as well as lending her talent as a director for Five Women Wearing the Same Dress, Sex Please We're 60 and The Guys. Linda has assisted P&B with fundraising and volunteers on a regular basis.

Mary Ann Tessin-Sister Mary Hubert

Mary Ann is an experienced actor, and has appeared as far north as Petosky, MI in Curious Savage. She says she was "hooked" when she played her first roll. As well as appearing on stage, Mary Ann has also assisted with make-up, and costuming. She has appeared at Midland Center for the Arts in On the Verge, Drop Dead and Annie, and volunteers with the Dog Tail Group.

Holly Jacobs- Sister Robert Anne

Holly comes to us with a BFA in Theatre from the University of South Dakota where she appeared in the Men of LaMancha, Once Upon a Mattress, Guys and Dolls and the Pirates of Penzance at the Black Hills Playhouse. After being away from Michigan for 18 years, Holly says she is glad to be back home!

Mandee Wunderle- Sister Mary Paul

Mandee is married to Spencer Wunderle and is mom to Remy, age 2, and Ollie, 10 months. She has been involved in theatre for 10 years and has performed at SVSU, OCP and other theatres. Mandee says she has serious plans to become the next Chloris Leachman.

Ann Kukla- Sister Mary Leo

Ann has been involved in theatre in the Great Lakes Bay Region here at P&B, Bay City Players and Midland Center for the Arts. She has lent her talents as a Prop Mistress and Stage Manager— and stage manages this show in addition as appearing as Sister Mary Leo. Ann is an active community volunteer who reminds us to “Save the Earth— it’s the only planet with chocolate”!

Jim Berghoff- Father Virgil Manly Trott

Jim began his theatre stint as a volunteer set builder for Pit and Balcony. He has appeared in Little Mary Sunshine and several other shows, worked as a Technical Director for Summer Dinner Theatre and at several high schools. He has worked with several area directors in a technical capacity and joins us as Father Trott.

Christian Eudis- John

Christian has appeared in church musicals for the past three years. He loves soccer and is a student of piano and the viola.

Jack Veverka- Billy

Jack is a 4th grader at Handley Elementary who loves “the arts”. He is involved in the annual plays at school and was part of the Class Act Summer Workshop here at P&B. He is excited about being in Nuncrackers after seeing his sisters in several plays here at the theatre.

Sophia Garcia- Maria

Sophia is 12 years old and a 6th grader at St. Thomas Aquinas School. She likes to read, write short stories, basketball and acting. She would like to thank her family and all her teachers and staff at school for their support. She will be attending the Class Act Youth Theatre Program at P&B this coming year!

Grace Lutenske- Louise

Grace is 10 years old and a 5th grader at handly School. This is her first role at P&B, but she has been coming here all her life with her parents. She has been a participant at theatre programs here and at SVSU. She has appeared in several youth productions including Community Helpers, The Weather Show, Professor Rock and has appeared in Diva Night.

Joey Garcia- Joey

Joey is a 1st grader at St. Thomas Aquinas and is 7 years old. He likes to play basketball and help out all his friends and teachers. He would like to thank his family, friends and teachers for all their support.

Matthew Taylor- Matthew

Matthew is the son of Musical Director Sara Taylor and her husband Dan Taylor who serves on the Pit and Balcony Board of Directors. Matthew was a participant of the first Class Act Youth Theatre Workshop in August 2012. Matthew lends his talent to our production of Nuncrackers as Matthew.

The Catholic Diocese of Saginaw was established on February 26, 1938 by Pope Pius XI. Its territory included 16 counties, carved out the Diocese of Grand Rapids and the Archdiocese of Detroit, in Michigan's "thumb and index finger." Today, the Saginaw diocese covers 11 counties in eastern mid-Michigan within the Roman Catholic Province of Detroit: Arenac, Bay, Clare, Gladwin, Gratiot, Huron, Isabella, Midland, Saginaw, Sanilac, and Tuscola.
